

We are looking for Data entry operator.

We are a company developing a specific software product. We are looking for an experienced data entry operator who can assist in loading legacy data of our customers into our software. This is a work from home role, You'll be working as part of a remote team across Sri Lanka and Australia and will need to supply your own computer, internet connection and ergonomic working environment.

Skills and experience:

- At Least 1 years experience within the data entry space.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Word/Excel and Google apps
- Good conversational and written english
- Experience with Trello

This is a full time contract and will be 12 weeks in length. The rate will be $/LKR an hour plus incentives.

We look forward to hearing from you, Thank you

Please email your application through to nuwan@slfreelancer.ml