We are looking for a
Chief Information Security Officer

Job Profile

The Chief information security officer is the head of IT security, driving the IT security strategy and implementation forward whilst protecting the business from security threats and cyber-hacking. This position is responsible for ensuring the implementation of a robust information security system and culture across the organization with industry best practices, working with all stakeholders.

Candidate Profile

- MBA from recognized institute
- Degree from a recognized university/institution and/or IT related professional qualification from a recognized body.
- 10 Years' information security experience in Financial Sector.
- Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP) or SACA Certified Information Security Manager (CISM) or equivalent professional qualification is a must.
- Expertise in networking, firewalls, cyber and digital solutions security and security controls.

Application should be sent to careers@sdb.lk within 7 days of the advertisement.
For more information visit: www.sdb.lk/careers

SDB bank

#whereyouarevalued