

Management Trainees

Lankem Ceylon PLC, a leading Private Sector conglomerate currently engaged in revamping its business processes in the Agriculture Sector is seeking for enthusiastic youth with a flair for innovation, and a commitment to hard work and continuous learning, to understudy and participate in the process of change and take over future leadership roles in one of its fully owned subsidiaries, SunAgro LifeScience Limited.

The chosen candidates will serve a comprehensive on the job training within all domains of the Agriculture sector for a period of one year with a team of professionals and be exposed to modern management practices to position them for a managerial career.

The ideal candidate/s will be young men and women preferably under the age of 26 years willing to actively participate in introducing innovative management practices and technology for enterprise effectiveness, efficiency, and growth.

Youth possessing a Degree in Agriculture or Science from a recognized University coupled with exceptional leadership and communication skills are invited to submit a Curriculum Vitae with names of two non-related referees to vacancies.hr@lankem.lk on or before 7th January 2023.

The selected candidates will be offered an attractive remuneration package.

Deputy General Manager – Human Resources

Lankem Ceylon PLC

No:98, Sri Sangaraja Mawatha

Colombo 10.