

Be a leader in retail

by partnering with the largest retail brand
in Sri Lanka

Vacancies exist for

MANAGEMENT TRAINEES

During the training period, trainees will be entitled to an attractive remuneration package.

We at Cargills aim to touch all Sri Lankans, transforming their lives and heralding progress in every community. You could play a part in this noble undertaking that will positively impact millions of lives. Come, be a part of the Cargills family that is committed to giving back to our nation. Let us offer you the guidance, opportunities and necessary skills to achieve this goal.

Pre-requisites for applicants:

- A University degree in Agriculture, Food Science, Management, Commerce, Accounting, Economics, Hospitality Management, Marketing or Arts
- Fair knowledge of English with a flair for public relations is essential
- The ability to handle IT and Tamil translations will be an added advantage
- Exceptional communication and good interpersonal skills
- A can-do attitude with motivation and drive
- Age below 28 years

Interested candidates can walk in for interviews with their resume on 12th, 13th & 14th December 2023 from 8.30 AM to 3.30 PM to the below address.

Group Chief Human Resources Officer
Cargills (Ceylon) Plc
Premier Pacific Building,
No. 28, R. A. De Mel Mawatha, Colombo 04.
Tel: 011 242 7500

OUR TEAM IS OUR STRENGTH

