Oracle Functional Consultants (EPM)

LOLC Technologies
(An LOLC Group Company)

LOLC Tech is a fully owned subsidiary of the LOLC Group. Our reputation lies in being a business enabler that utilizes innovative information and communication technology to simplify operations, with a primary focus on financial services applications.

Responsibilities:

- Ability to visit clients, gain an understanding of their business processes, and create comprehensive system requirement specifications and related documentation to ensure the delivery of expected system solutions
- Ability to implement/configure systems, drive functional improvements, and identify process development for clients.
- Understand and carryout detailed documentation and solution reviews of financial and non-financial modules as assigned by the management.
- Collaborate with internal staff, partners, and other stakeholders to deliver solutions and system support for customers.
- Support pre sales activities
- Train and mentor junior team members

Requirements:

- Graduate of a recognized university in Management/ IT/ Accounting (or an equivalent educational qualification)
- Full or Partial qualification in CIMA/ACCA/ ICASL is preferred
- Prior experience in implementation of Oracle EPM/ERP or any other solution will be a definite advantage.
- Experience in working in the finance/ audit/ IT sectors is preferred
- Thorough understanding of accounting concepts
- Excellent communication and inter personal skills
- Personal attributes required include an analytical thinking, attention to detail, self-learner and a team player.
- Willingness to learn functionalities of the system and get through Oracle certifications.
- Strong troubleshooting skills with an eye to solve complex problems quickly
- Travel Readiness

Apply Via
careers@lolctech.com

LOLC