

Vallibel One PLC is one of the nation's leading diversified conglomerates. The Group has consistently sought to reach new heights of excellence, while adopting and maintaining best practices and good governance in order to create a sustainable operating framework that will deliver value in the long-term.

JOIN OUR WORLD OF OPPORTUNITIES !

Research Executive

Responsibilities

- Conduct research in business development, digital transformation and new trends.
- Evaluate existing and potential business opportunities, perform business analysis, and drive new proposals.
- Conduct local and international benchmarking exercises and suggest the best practices.
- Be passionate about working with ability to complete tasks within timelines.

Requirements

- Passed Local or Edexcel A levels with Mathematics from a recognized Government or International school.
- Age between 19 to 23 years.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills in English.
- High level of computer literacy (Internet technologies and MS Office application).
- Demonstrate skills and have a creative flair to work under minimum supervision in a fast-paced organization.

If you are passionate about delivering results and keen on taking up challenges in one of Sri Lanka's largest companies while being trained and guided by its strong leadership, please send your CV with a recent photograph indicating the post applied for on the subject line of the email.